

I support Indiana Attorney General's efforts to keep the CBA from weakening the Indiana Privacy Law. Prior to the law, our business was daily called from banks offering credit cards to the business and employees. This type of activity from the banks disrupts our business and costs our company a great deal of money due to lost productivity.